Commando Ski Trip: Austria, Feb. 13-28, 2009

I have done this trip to Hopfgarten 5 different years and have already booked this trip myself for this season. Several Club members over the past few years have expressed an interest in joining me on my next trip to Austria.

Since a trip like this is a bit more complex to arrange than a typical club trip it won't be booked or arranged by the club. I am willing to help interested individuals make their own arrangements. So think of this one as a commando trip if you like.

Skiing Details:

Check out www.skiwelt.at for details of this very large ski area. Lift tickets can easily be purchased on arrival for as many days as you care to ski, you may want to leave yourself some time to check out the area, the train station is very conveniently located within walking distance of the ski lift. Basic lift tickets are about ($290 for 6 days) and ($485 for 13 days).

Flight Details:

Air transportation and airport transfer is responsibility of individual. I booked Wichita to Munich on United for $806. Roundtrip airport transfer should be about $160 and takes about 2 hours.
